A Republican Paper Commends a Democratic Candidate For President.

The Democrats of northern Ohio are just now taking an unusual interest in the great political tragedy which their party is placing upon the boards of the national theater at Washington. Their chagrin at the failure of their party to keep its pledges knows no bounds. They are in favor of a radical reduction of the tariff, and upon that line they are massing their forces for 1896. They will favor only such a candidate for the presidency as will vote that sentiment. A general opinion prevails here that the man whose political course has been consistent and who has the best claim to the honor of a Democratic nomination is an Ohioan. He is a free trader, a single tax advocate and a Henry George adher-

ent. That Ohio Democrat is Congressman Tom L. Johnson of the Twenty-first district. This sentiment, thus far, is confined to northern Ohio. Two arguments are advanced in favor of Johnson by his followers. He is absolutely consistent and is not prominently connected with any particular faction of his party in Ohio. He is not as near to the Cleveland administration as is ex-Governor Campbell, but much nearer than

Senator Brice.

There are many reasons why Democrats think there is reason to believe the nomination is coming west of the Allegheny mountains. Ohioans say they must not go too far from their own

Republican will find their candidate in northern Ohio and in the person of Governor McKinley, and why, say the Democrats, should we not find our leader on the same ground? They say, too,

that no man in Ohio has been more pronounced in his opposition to Governor

McKinley's views than has the free trade

representative of this district.

Judge E. J. Blandin of Cleveland, who stands among the most influential party

advisers of the state, has a significant

remark the other day in characterizing

Congressman Johnson. "He is a Napoleon," declared the judge. "He is antiquated to be a Vanderbilt and equally ambitions to be president of the United States. He will be a Vanderbilt, and he may be president of the United States."

Judge Blandin's views will find approval in many minds. Men who know

Johnson admire him. Like the immortal

Blaine, he is magnetic; like President Cleveland, he carries for no party

factor; but, like great Caesar, he is ambitions.

He is a man of immense wealth and at the same time has a big following among the laboring classes. By a display of frankness at least he has made for himself a substantial following. Tom L.

Johnson occupies a unique position in Ohio politics. The boldness of his views

has fascinated men who hold opinions entirely at variance with his own. The outspoken warrior in the arena of politics

is a novelty. It is especially difficult for Ohio Democrats to find a leader just now whose views are known. In Johnson a leader has been found whose political creed is as clearly outlined and as fearlessly proclaimed as is the creed of Governor McKinley, whom Ohioans, regardless of party, have come to call the logical candidate of the Republicans for the great contest of 1896. The only question which Democrats here are considering is as to whether the views of the single tax member from Ohio will meet with the approval of the convention

which will be called upon to name the leader.

Ohio Democrats have gone into many conventions heretofore with a delegation divided among itself. There have been

McLeans and Thurmans, Paynes and Fendletons, and today there are Burges and Campbells. Factions, fatal factions, have marred the conventions of Democrats of Ohio for 20 years. The man who belongs to no faction and who has not grown too great by feeding upon the meat of ambition will be a star actor in the Democratic farce comedy of the summer of 1896. The name of Tom L.

Johnson seems to start a spirit of enthusiasm among the faction of "kicks"

and "mossbacks" alike, and it would not take much to start his political stock moving skyward.

The rise of Congressman Johnson has been remarkable. Ten years ago he was an obscure man. He made a few fortune investments in street car enterprises with his limited means. He has quadrupled his fortune about every two years. Six years ago he entered politics with a well filled barrel and a first class following.

He met with defeat. Two years later he tried it and won. He was re-elected over the Hon. O. J. Hodge, and he will be nominated once more without opposition

this fall. He will have to work against disrupting factions, and it is in this fact that causes apprehension among his friends. If he can overcome party opposition, he may get his seat in congress

once more.

A prominent Cleveland Democrat, just returned from the state capital ballgame, stated that the political battlefield

of the nation was going to center in Ohio

for the next two years. He drew a little diagram of the political battlefield about like this: "John R. McLean, editor of FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1894.

THE RESOLUTION TRANSLATED.

The Convention of Republican League Clubs at Denver adopted the following financial resolution:

We believe in the use of gold and silver as money metals maintained on perfect parity and inconvertibility. We do not believe that there will be a permanent return of prosperity to our country until the full use and highest position of silver shall be restored, and we favor such legislation as will bring about the result.

The Denver News offered a reward of $25 for the best translation of the resolution into plain English. Twelve hundred competed for the prize and sent translations to the News office. The committee appointed to pass upon the various translations awarded the premium to the following:

It means that its authors were too cowardly to endorse a categorical demand for free coinage of silver. Like the Damascus blade, it can be bent double without breaking, and twisted like a corkscrew. It was to cheer gold monometallists—being susceptible of any construction that they may desire. Its authors evidently believed with Tallyrand, that words are given to conceal thoughts and not to express them. It is the champion fly paper for catching the credulous, as the devil quotes scripture to beguile the unwary. It will illumine the banner of the G. O. P. in its sun dances of '94 and '98.

OTTO FRINKER.

That is the resolution which Hon. H. F. Bartine, who represented the Republicans of Nevada at the Convention, expressed himself as being satisfied with. "It is the champion fly paper to catch the credulous." It avoids free coinage as the devil does holy water, and while it disgusts every sincere friend of silver it is hoped by plating it with a free coinage coating at the Republican State Convention at Reno to delude the people of Nevada into the belief that it is a genuine silver plank.

CALIFORNIA MILITIAMEN

The ways of the militiamen of California during the strike have not been pleasant. They were called out by the Governor to keep the peace. If they refused to obey they were court-martialed and dishonorably discharged, if not more severely punished. Many of them are young men employed in various occupations in cities and towns. Their employers notified them that if they did not return to work at a stated time they would be discharged. Their officers told them that under the military code they would be classed as deserters if they left their commands when in active service without permission. This placed them between two fires, as it were. If they remained under arms they would be discharged by their employers, and if they deserted they were liable to be court-martialed.

Now that the cruel war is over, many of the national guardsmen find themselves, as many of the strikers do, out of employment. Colonel Barry of the Third Regiment has called upon all the Captains to report to him the number of members in their respective companies who have been discharged by their employers because of their absence during the strike. He says something must be done to awaken public appreciation of the fact that the militia are being punished instead of rewarded for their services. He wants the name of every man discharged from employment, the name of his employer, and the reason, if any, assigned for the same, so that he can lay the matter before the Brigadier-General with the request that it be forwarded to the higher authorities.

RAILROAD TAXES.

E. B. Ryan of the Southern Pacific Company stated before the State Board of Equalization of California that the road is assessed $9,000 per mile in Weber county and $7,500 per mile in Box Elder county, Utah. In Arizona the average rate is $7,000 per mile, in New Mexico $5,000 per mile, in Oregon $6,000 per mile, while in Nevada the lowest is $10,000 per mile and the highest $14,000 per mile. In explanation of the high rate in Nevada, he said the grass is very short in this State, and railroad taxes are the chief source of revenue.

Notwithstanding the railroad pays its proportion of the taxes of Nevada four-fifths of the business men and farmers interviewed by JOURNAL reporters on the subject are decidedly in favor of Government ownership of railroads. They claim that the reduction in transportation rates would overbalance the increased taxation to such an extent that they could well afford to have the road untaxed, as it would be if the Government owned it.

So far only one Republican State Convention has declared for free coinage. That one is California and it has been roundly denounced by the high priests of the party in the East for doing so. The silver producing States are expected to follow the example of California, but the great majority of the party in the East is controlled by the Gold Trust and absolutely opposed to free coinage.

The $50,000 in gold stolen from a consignment sent from New York to Lazard Freres at Cle, Paris, has been found in some sacks in a heap of coal near the railroad station at Havre, France.

WHAT'S THE GAME NOW? The Chicago Map, known as the railroad organ of Nevada, calls Charley Wallace "the great railroad boss." As Artemus Wood would say, "This is nonsense."

THE TRAIN WRECKERS' TRIAL.

A Woman's Damaging Testimony.

WOODLAND, Cal., August 2.—The testimony this morning was the strongest the prosecution has put in during the past four days of the trial. Mrs. Mary Van Duzon was the first witness. It was at her house in Sacramento that Sam Clark, the dead engineer, boarded. Witness said that on the morning of the wreck she asked of Mr. Neil, an A. R. U. boarder, if there was really any danger to anyone going out on the train that morning.

He asked me if I should see Sam again, and I said "yes, in the morning." He said: "Whoever goes out on that engine will never reach Davisville. Warn him in my name not to go. If he goes you will never see him again." I saw him in the morning and pleaded with him not to go. He said: "I must go. If I don't they will court-martial me and make me."

W. F. Hayden testified to going to the scene of the wreck and returning to Sacramento by the county road and to meeting Worden and riding to town with him. Witness was asked to identify Worden, who was at that time concealed from witness's view.

"Stand up, Mr. Worden," said Judge Fisher.

"Let the witness stand up if he wants to see me," replied Worden.

"Do as I tell you," shouted the Judge.

"Well, I won't do as you tell me," rejoined Worden.

Worden slowly rose to his feet by a command from General Hart, his attorney. He was identified by the witness.

The entire afternoon session was consumed in the examination of Frank D. Read, who testified that he came to Sacramento from Dunsmuir on July 5th. On July 11th he was given a gun and two rounds of ammunition and was told to report to Captain Collins at the west end of the Sacramento bridge at midnight. He met Collins about a mile from the point of the wreck and gave the password of the A. R. U. and went on over talking to the other men, one of whom said: "If we can't stop the train any other way I can pop the engineer." Witness then refused to act in such a scheme. One of the strikers present said, "you better keep your mouth shut or you will go into the river." He then started back to Sacramento. The pickets took away his ammunition, but he retained the gun, afterwards throwing it into a clump of bushes. The witness then left Sacramento, afraid to remain under the surveillance of the A. R. U. The witness testified that he had seen Worden on the morning of July 11th in a wagon which was driven through the lines by a boy.

The court adjourned while the cross-examination was incomplete.

Desperadoes Pay the Penalty of Their Crime.

SAPULPA, O. T., August 2.—Two more of the Cook gang of desperadoes who attempted to rob the bank at Oklaheide have paid the penalty of their outlaw life. A posse chasing the gang came across Henry Munson and Lon Gordon this morning. Munson sighted the officers and the desperadoes immediately gave battle. The officers had the drop on them, and the second volley brought Munson to the ground. He died instantly and Gordon was fatally injured. Another of the gang was captured. One Marshal was shot and severely wounded.

Firemen Killed by a Falling Wall. DETROIT, August 2.—One fireman was killed and six injured this afternoon in a fire which destroyed two planing mills and lumber yards. Property loss $60,000. The water supply was so poor the firemen were hampered. They succeeded in preventing the flames from spreading. Two squads of pipemen were playing streams on the mill when a portion of the wall gave way and a half dozen firemen were caught by falling bricks.

Railroaders Still Striking.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., August 2.—Every wheel in the yards of the Montana Central railroad was stopped at noon to-day. The west-bound train was delayed two hours in getting a non-union engineer. The local A. R. U. union has decided to uphold Engineers Bowker and Murphy. The strike was inaugurated because the Master Mechanic refused to reinstate them.

Later the men decided to return to work, pending an investigation.

Fullman Having Trouble in Starting Up.

CHICAGO, August 2.—The Pullman works were started to-day. But 250 men reported for work, although the company expected 800. A thousand strikers gathered in the vicinity of the works, but treated politely.

THE COREAN WAR.

The Chinese Victorious on Land. COPENHAGEN, August 2.—It is officially announced that the Chinese northern fleet of thirteen vessels has left Chefoo for Korea, and another Chinese and Japanese battle may be expected at any hour.

LONDON, August 2.—A dispatch to the Times from Shanghai says reports have been received there from officials at Seoul that the Chinese under General Yes on Sunday defeated the Japanese forces near Asan. The Japanese withdrew to Seoul.

Twenty thousand Manchurian Chinese troops have crossed the frontier and are marching on Seoul.

SEANGHAI, August 2.—An official telegram from Tien Tsin says that in the battles fought on July 27 and 28 at Yashan the Japanese were repulsed with a loss of two thousand men.

St. PETERSBURG, August 2.—It is officially announced that Russia, desiring a settlement of the war between China and Japan, will act in complete accord with Great Britain to secure an immediate solution of the difficulty. Failing, Russia will not allow any Power to take even partial possession of Korea.

WASHINGTON, August 2.—A telegram received at the Japanese Legation says the Chinese Government has notified Japan that the Minister at Tokio and Consuls throughout Japan would be withdrawn by the 3d of August. In consequence of this action, the Japanese Government notified its Charge d' Affaires at Peking and Consuls throughout China to withdraw.

At the request of the Chinese and Japanese Governments, the State Department has instructed United States Minister Dunn at Tokio and Denby at Peking to take under the protection of the United States the citizens of China in Japan and the Japanese in China. This is distinctively a war measure.

A Steamer Destroyed by Fire.

PORTLAND, OR., August 2.—A private dispatch received to-day from Waneta, B. C., states that the steamer Columbia took fire at 1:30 last night, while lying at a wood yard above the boundary line on the Columbia river and was entirely destroyed. No lives lost. The loss is estimated at $75,000. The steamer was owned by the Columbia and Kootenai Steam Navigation Company.

A Train Held up.

St. LOUIS, August 2.—Reports received from police headquarters state that the passenger train which left here on the Frisco railway at 8:20 o'clock this evening for Kansas City and points west was held up at Eureka Station, three miles from here. It is reported that the express messenger was shot through the hand.

Republicans in Wyoming.

CASPER, WY., August 2.—The Republican State Convention made the following nominations: Congress, Frank Mendell; Governor, W. T. Richards; Secretary of State, C. W. Burdick; Auditor, W. O. Owen; Treasurer, John G. Hay; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Estelle Reel, Judge of the Supreme Court, C. N. Potter.

Another Big Fire at Chicago.

CHICAGO, August 2.—A fire that started just beyond the limits of last night's conflagration is raging fiercely at midnight. A furious gale increases the danger of its spreading. It threatens to prove as destructive as the fire of last night. Sixty engines are working at the fire.

Strikers Fined for Retarding Mails.

DENVER, Colorado, August 2.—In the United States District Court this afternoon seven Grand Junction railroad men were convicted by a jury for retarding mails by refusing to handle trains in which there were Pullman cars. Judge Hallett fined them $10 and costs each. His leniency surprised the A. R. U. men.

A. R. U. Convention.

CHICAGO, August 2.—President Debs presided over the A. R. U. convention which met here to-day behind closed doors. There were about 250 delegates present, representing 512 unions.

State Convention of Idaho.

BOISE, August 2.—The Populist State Convention to-day nominated for Congress James Gunn; for Governor, J. W. Ballantine.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us: "When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A cousin had formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it swelled and drew out pus, and I thought if I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong." T. D. M., Norcanur, Kans.

A Large Sugar Factory Begins Operations.

CRINO, Cal., August 2.—This morning the Crino sugar factory, the largest and most complete factory and refinery in the United States, started up for the season with additions to the plant made at the cost of a quarter of a million dollars. The factory will use one thousand tons of beets per day and the daily output of refined sugar will be one hundred and forty tons.

The Contested Election Case Decided.

WASHINGTON, August 2.—The House to-day acted on the majority resolution of the Committee on Elections on the contested election case of Moore vs. Fenston, declaring Fenston, Republican, not elected, and Moore, Democrat and Populist, entitled to the seat. Six Democrats voted with the Republicans against Moore.

Confirmed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, August 2.—The Senate to-day confirmed the following nominations: Postmistress at Virginia City, Nevada, Nora Webber; Albert T. Spotts of California coiner at San Francisco mint.

A Village Burned.

LA MOORE, N. D., August 2.—The county Court House with all records and four blocks of business buildings, comprising the main part of the town, were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $300,000.

A Prisoner Croaked in His Cell.

ROSLYN, Washington, August 2.—Last night Bill Tequancy, Indian, while lodged in the jail for night, set fire to his cell and was burned to a crisp.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live but do not feel, have no more than a sense of duty and call of conscience. No man, who lives by the law of duty, can afford to neglect his health. A pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
